REDISTRICTING COMMITTEE TO HOLD FOURTH PUBLIC HEARING

Milwaukee, WI – County Supervisor Michael Mayo, Sr., Chairman of the Milwaukee County Redistricting Committee, is inviting all interested County residents to attend the next Redistricting Public Hearing on Tuesday. The County Board is required to adjust Supervisory districts based on results from the 2010 U.S. Census.

“We have now invited the public to four separate public hearings, including one held in the evening at the Washington Park Senior Center,” Supervisor Mayo said. “Tuesday’s hearing will give residents another opportunity to testify in front of the Committee and make their opinions known.”

Residents may be limited to three minutes of testimony each, depending on the number of individuals who wish to testify. Written testimony of any length can also be submitted to the Committee.

In addition to hearing from constituents who attend the Public Hearing, Supervisors will also conduct Committee business relating to the adopted tentative plan.
